

Committee on Engagement Interest Form

Where do you see yourself in the mission and ministry of First Baptist Greenville? Your responses on this form will be used by the Committee on Engagement, staff members and other leaders to help you be engaged in our congregational life together. On the other page, you will find areas of mission and ministry in which to engage your gifts, calling and strengths at First Baptist Greenville. Please identify those areas which coincide with your greatest passion and interest, and return this form to Jenna Manning in the Church Office.

The Committee on Engagement encourages you to identify your spiritual gifts, discern your calling, or inventory your strengths as a first step in engagement in ministry and mission. Whether or not you have participated in one of the opportunities below, we invite you to become engaged in the life of First Baptist Greenville.

- If you have taken the spiritual gifts inventory available online at the EngageFirst link at www.firstbaptistgreenville.com, please list your spiritual gifts:

- If you have participated in a process of discerning your calling, such as a Klesis Group, please identify your calling, as you understand it:

---

- If you have identified your strengths in the inventory in the book Living Your Strengths: Discover Your God-Given Talents and Inspire Your Community, please list your "signature strengths":

---

Opportunities arise in different areas at various times during the year, but you can expect follow-up communication from a leader in the area(s) you indicate on the accompanying page.
